JUDGE MANN'S ADDRESS.

Moves Two Men at Y. M. C. A. to Embrace Christianity.

The service at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon, at which Hon. William Hodge Mann, of Nottingham, made an address, and Mayor McCarthy presided, was one of the most interesting and successful of the kind ever held in this city.

At the conclusion of Judge Mann's impressive address the Mayor, an appealing officer, briefly commented the many appeal to men, and announced that if any present were desirous of embracing Christianity now was the opportunity. Almost immediately two men, one a gray-haired elderly gentleman, and the other a younger man, came forward and avowed their determination to lead Christian lives. Secretary Thomas Thompson asked if any other present felt an interest in the matter of religion, and several hands went up.

Judge Mann is a layman, but is a brilliant lawyer and very forceful public speaker.

VIRGINIA DAY TO BE GREAT EVENT

Program Completed and Announcement Made of Many Interesting Features.

GOVERNOR TO MAKE ADDRESS

Splendid Military Pageant Planned and Many Thousands Are Expected.

Governor Swanson has been engaged for some time in preparing the program for Virginia Day—June 12th—at the Jamestown Exposition. He completed the work yesterday, and the program he announces includes a large number of interesting features for both day and night. It follows in full:

Exercise from reviewing stand, commencing at 1:30 P. M., Colonel A. M. Bowman, Salem, Va., presiding.

Prayer—Rev. J. Sydney Peters, Petersburg, Va.

Musical—"My Country, 'Tis of Thee," the band.

Poem—Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, who will be presented by Hon. Robert W. Withers, of Suffolk.

Musical—"Star-Spangled Banner," the band.

Address—Governor Claude A. Swanson, who will be presented by Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson.

Musical—"Dixie," the band.

Parade of national and State military, including V. M. L. and V. P. L. cadets, Georgia troops and other military organizations. The parade will be under command of Major-General Frederick D. Grant, U. S. A.

Features at Night.

From 8:30 to 11 P. M. a public reception will be held at the Virginia Building by Governor and Mrs. Swanson and the Virginia Jamestown Commissioners.

The entire navy will be illuminated and a naval carnival held.

No invitations will be issued to any one. All are cordially invited to be present at the exercises. All seats on the reviewing stand are owned by concessionaires, with the exception of 1,000. Of the 1,000 seats not owned by concessionaires 400 will be distributed by the Jamestown Exposition Company and 600 have been allotted to the Virginia Jamestown Commission, and will be distributed by Captain W. W. Baker and Hon. Robert W. Withers to distinguished foreign guests, officers of the army and navy, members of the General Assembly of Virginia, mayors of the cities, the judiciary and other State officials, at the Virginia Building on June 12th before 1 o'clock.

Superb Pageant.

The parade and ceremonies are growing in magnitude as the date approaches, and already it is assured that the pageant will be the most superb that has yet been witnessed, and in many respects one of the greatest had in Virginia since the war.

In addition to 2,000 Virginia troops, about 2,500 United States regulars, representing the three branches of the service, it is now assured that practically the entire complement of officers and men of the North Atlantic fleet, the marines and blue-jackets, will be debarked and permitted to participate in the great spectacle. More than this, it is also assured that the marines and blue-jackets and military detachments representing all nations now present at the exposition will be invited to take part in the procession and review. Invitation is in effect accepted.

There will probably be 10,000 men, representing the flower of the armies and navies of the leading nations of the world, in the martial pageant that will be reviewed by Governor Swanson and other officials.

Will Run Specials.

The Norfolk and Western and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railways will run special trains from this city to the Jamestown Exposition Virginia Day, giving the excursion rates of $1.50 for the round trip. Just how many trains will be run will depend upon the travel. The routes will undertake to accommodate the people if it takes a half-dozen or more trains on each line. The proposition is that there will be a great outpouring of the people on Virginia Day.

Should Give Orders Now.

Postmaster Cabell has received an order from the department at Washington announcing that owing to the fact that a new concern has received the contract for printing request envelopes, it will be necessary for business houses desiring them during the month of July to place their orders by June 15th.

The new concern will hardly get down to business before August 1st, but if the orders are placed by the 15th of June, the present contractor can furnish them before his contract expires. There are about 500 Richmond firms using these stamped envelopes printed by the government.

Still Editing Those Debates.

Discussions of Constitutional Convention Only Partially Published.

Although nearly five years have elapsed since the Virginia Constitutional Convention of 1901-2 completed its work and adjourned sine die, it is being commented upon that the debates of the convention have never yet been published. A committee providing for their publication and carrying an appropriation was adopted and the work committed to a subcommittee of a regular committee of the body. Last year, four years after the body adjourned, one volume of these debates was completed and sent out, and another volume was promised. Up to this time, however, the promised volume has not been forthcoming. It is now, while many important questions of construction of the organic law and of the intent of the framers of the Constitution have been raised in the courts and other tribunals, but this work, designed to be of value in just such contingencies was not ready in the interim seven or eight members of the convention have gone to that bourne from which no traveler returns and the remainder have almost forgotten the debates.

The committee entrusted with the work of editing and publishing the debates, consisting of Messrs. James H. Lindsay, Carter Glass and others, it was understood that the completion of the work was left to Mr. Lindsay, of Charlottesville.
